

LONG HAUL TRUCKING & TRANSPORTATION

McLean Hallmark Gateway is an industry leader in providing risk management services and insurance coverage to the many different moving parts which make up the Transportation Industry. Our diverse team of industry specialists knows what it takes to stay competitive in this demanding sector. Whether you haul freight, provide logistics, transport people or are an already established owner/operator - we deliver both the risk management and product knowledge to keep you moving forward.

With over sixty-five years of experience in the transportation industry, McLean Hallmark Gateway's award winning Transit Authority has positioned itself to go beyond insurance products. From quarterly loss run reviews, expert claims analysis to driver safety workshops - our unique comprehensive approach looks to successfully manage your total cost of risk and quantifiably impact your organization's bottom line.

If you are a single owner operator, Fleet Owner, or provider of Warehousing and Logistics, McLean Hallmark Gateway's transportation specialists can help with an overall risk assessment to identify key areas with regards to coverage, limits and exposures that are critical to protecting your business.
